SIMON, H. T., M. D., "The Treatment of Spastic Paralysis by the Stoffel Operation," New Orleans Med. and Surg. Journal, Vol. 80, Pages 662-7. April 1928.
SCHROEDER, PAUL L., M. D., "Behavior Difficulties in Children Associated with the Results of Birth Trauma," Journal American Medical Assoc. Vol. 92, Page 100-4. Jan. 12, 1929.
VON LOCKUM, H. LEROY, M. D., "Sympathetic Ramisection in Spastic Paralysis—40 cases from service of New York Orthopaedic Dispensary Hospital," Reprint American Medical Assoc. 1929. Journal American Medical Assoc. Vol. 92, Pages 139-43. Jan. 12, 1929.
WOOD, W., F. R. C. S. E., "Treatment of Spastic Paralysis by Sympathetic Ramisection," Edinburgh Medical Journal. Vol. 32, Pages 305-9. June 1925.
WALSHE, F. M. R., M. D., D. Sc. London, "The Oliver-Sharpey Lectures on the Physiological Analysis of Some Clinically Observed Disorders of Movement," Lect. I. The Lancet. May 1, 1929. Vol. 1. Pages 963-8.

Index to Volume XI of the Physiotherapy Review

Abstracts, JOHN S. COULTER, M. D., pp. 25, 79, 129, 172, 279.
Acute Myofibrositis; Discussion of Its Phenomena, JEROME H. SAMUEL, M. D., p. 93.
Aids in Muscle Training, F. J. GAENSLEN, M. D., p. 238.
Case of Beriberi, CHARLOTTE H. BALLARD, p. 203.
Cases of Drainage Treated in the Salt Water Pool, ESTELLE MARTIN, p. 207.
Chicago Public Schools' Experiment in the Education of the "Spastic Child," MABEL C. SMART, p. 69.
Child's Mental Health, DOUGLAS A. THOM, M. D., p. 96.
Club Foot: Congenital Talipes Equinus Varus, W. P. BLOUNT, M. D., p. 254.
Comparative Study of the Therapeutic Effects of Physical Exercise and Ultraviolet Light, ROBERT L. JOHNSTON, M. D., p. 21.
Confusion in the Interpretation of Muscle Function, J. W. McCAMMON, M. D., p. 106.
Cooperation the Keynote, EDITH MONRO, p. 162.
Coordination Exercises Under Water in the Treatment of Spastic Paralysis Following a Spine Fracture, BEATRICE WOODCOCK, p. 11.
Correcting, RUTH E. WINCH, p. 159.
Directory of Members of The American Physiotherapy Association, p. 32.
Early Treatment of the More Common Congenital Deformities, ROBERT V. FUNSTON, M. D., p. 43.
Education in Physical Therapy, IRVING S. CUTTER, M. D., p. 38.
Efficient and Inefficient Physiotherapy, JAMES T. WATKINS, M. D., p. 194.
Electrocoagulation of Hemorrhoids, BENJAMIN F. TEFFT, M. D., p. 260.
"Fender Fracture" of the Tibia at the Knee, F. J. COTTON, M. D. and RICHARD BERG, M. D., p. 107.
Fundamentals of Occupational Treatment in Spastic Paralysis, SUSAN ALLEN PAISLEY, p. 102.
Following Through, MILDRED ELSON, p. 263.
Gillette State Hospital for Crippled Children, MARIAN DENNY, p. 68.
Good Feet, CHARLES R. McCLURE, M. D., p. 186.
History of Physical Therapeutics, FRANK HAMMOND KRUSEN, M. D., p. 57.
Importance of Body Mechanics in Physiotherapy, LEAH THOMAS, p. 118.
Importance of a Rehabilitation Program in Medical Education, JOHN S. COULTER, M. D. and CHARLOTTE M. MORRISON, B. S., p. 54.
Index to Current Literature on Physical Therapy, pp. 77, 101, 158, 234, 253.
Indications for Electrotherapy with Emphasis in Electrophysics, JOSEPH RESNIK, M. D., p. 151.
Individual Exercise Class in a Young Women's Christian Association, CONSTANCE K. GREENE, p. 121.
Introducing Motion in the Abduction Splint for Poliomyelitis in the Arm, DOROTHEA SORENSON, p. 264.
Massage, RALPH PEMBERTON, M. D., JOHN S. COULTER, M. D. and HARRY MOCK, M. D., p. 241.
Mastoid Operation for Facial Paralysis, NOBLE DICK, M. D., p. 9.
Medical Practice Act Enforcement, p. 266.
Mental Health, JAMES W. McCONNEL, M. D., p. 258.
Mental Hygiene Problems of Children with Sensory-Motor Defects, BRONSON CROTHERS, M. D., p. 98.
Muscle Training in the Treatment of Obstetrical Paralysis, MARY E. TRAINOR, p. 276.
Nerve Injuries, F. CROOKS, M. Ch., p. 74.
Neuritis as Seen by an Orthopedic Surgeon, MARK ROGERS, M. D., p. 90.
New Method of Producing Fever: The Treatment of General Paresis, CLARENCE A. NEYMANN, M. D. and STAFFORD L. OSBORNE, B. P. E., p. 47.
New School of Physical Education and Physiotherapy in Washington, p. 262.
Overcoming Postural Handicaps, DORIS I. NEEL, p. 208.
Paralysis of the Shoulder Muscles Following Acute Anterior Poliomyelitis, DANIEL H. LEVINTHAL, M. D., p. 51.
Physical Therapy and the Physicians Obligation, HAROLD M. F. BEHNEMAN, M. D., p. 4.
Physiotherapy for Fender Fractures, LUCY A. MARSHALL, p. 108.
Physiotherapy Treatment in Certain Types of Low Back Strain, MARY McMILLAN, p. 113.
Physiotherapy from the Standpoint of the General Practitioner, HENRY PLEASANTS, Jr. M. D., p. 255.
Physiotherapy in Nervous and Mental Disease, CLARENCE A. PATTEN, M. D., p. 146.
Psychiatry and Physiotherapy, LEO BARTEMEYER, M. D., p. 105.
Rational Therapy in "Rheumatism," EDWARD A. RICH, M. D., p. 10.
Regime of the Physical Care of the Dowling School Children, HELEN S. FOSS and HARRIET B. GASS, p. 66.
Relaxation, PAULINE D. PAULSON, p. 24.
Recreation for the Physically Handicapped, VERNE MARIE MILLER, p. 72.
Relief of Neuritis by Physiotherapy, MARY LEE CASTLEMAN, p. 123.
Report of Some Experiences in Rehabilitation in Encephalitis, LOUISA C. LIPPITT, p. 156.
Round Table Discussion on Department Administration, p. 220.
Scoliosis, A. STEINDLER, M. D., p. 7.
Some Exercises Used in the Treatment of Relaxed Arches, MARIA M. KENNEDY, p. 16.
Some Fundamentals of Nutrition, GORDON SAXON, M. D., p. 256.
Some Methods for Gaining Relaxation, JOSEPHINE L. RATHBONE, p. 154.
Sympathectomy for Peripheral Vascular Diseases, ALFRED W. ADSON, M. D., p. 42.
Symptomology and Treatment of Alcoholic Peripheral Polyneuritis, ALBERT T. STEEGMANN, M. D., p. 2.
Survey of Prevailing Theories and Methods of Treating the Spastic Patient with Physiotherapeutic Applications, RUTH AUST, pp. 197, 269.
Tibial Torsion, MARGARET ANDREWS, p. 214.
Treatment of Disabilities Resulting from Low Back Derangements, E. G. BRACKETT, M. D., p. 109.
Treatment of Some Neurological Conditions by Physiotherapy, F. G. LINDEMULDER, M. D., p. 45.
Treatment of Non-Paralytic Curvature of the Spine, GEORGE WAGONER, M. D., p. 149.
Use of Massage in Internal Medicine, RALPH PEMBERTON, M. D., p. 250.
Value of Physical Therapy in Peripheral Vascular Disease, GEZA DeTAKATS, M. D., p. 38.
Value and Use of an Exercise Pool, JANET BOYD MERRILL, p. 114.
What is a Physiotherapist? JULIA A. TUGGLE, p. 13.
Why Educate the Crippled Child? CARRIE DABY, p. 205.
Why I Included Internal Hydrotherapy, EMILY J. GRIFFIN, p. 124.
Zinc Ionization Treatment of Chronic and Subacute Purulent Otitis Media, JOHN G. McLARIN, M. D., p. 190.